

OSHA 10-Hour Safety Course

Provided by an OSHA-Authorized Instructor for the Construction Industry

Course content is determined by current OSHA requirements for this course and may include:

- Introduction to OSHA
- Stairways and Ladders
- Fall Protection; Scaffolds
- Electrical Hazards; Hand and Power Tools
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Cranes
- Health Hazards, Hazardous Communication
- Materials Handling, Storage, and Disposal
- Excavations

Participants receive a certificate of training the same day of the course and their official OSHA card within four weeks of the course.

Specialized Safety Training

CADTEC can customize training to your meet your company's needs. Additional training topics include:

- National Electric Code (NEC)
- NFPA- 70E
- Lockout/Tagout
- Additional Topics by Request

For customized training contact:

Ronnie Lambert - 706-771-5712

rlambert@augustatech.edu

OR

Click here for CADTEC Catalog

8-Hour Basic Industrial Safety Course

CADTEC and area industry representatives developed an eight hour intensive program to standardize training among area employers, while reducing duplicate training sessions.

The CADTEC Basic Industrial Safety training program raises the safety awareness level of your employees. The program, a full day of training, includes a written test. Upon successful completion of the program and test, CADTEC issues a pocket certification card to your employee.

- General Safety Awareness
 - Housekeeping
 - Ladders and Scaffolding
 - Falls in Construction Prevention
 - NFPA 70E and Electrical Safety
 - Permit-Required Confined Spaces
 - Emergency Preparedness & Action Plan
 - Accidents / Incident Investigation
- Personal Protective Clothing/Equipment (PPE)
- Hazardous Energy Control (Lockout/Tagout)
- Hazard Communication
 - Your Right to Know; MSDS
- Fire Suppression; Review
- Bloodborne Pathogens

