Augusta Technical College Commemorates Law Enforcement Academy Class of 034 Graduation with a Swearing-In Ceremony

Augusta, GA - April 05, 2024

Augusta Technical College proudly hosted the Swearing-In Ceremony for Class 034 of the Law Enforcement Academy, held at the Jack B. Patrick Information Technology Center Auditorium on the Augusta Campus.

The ceremony signified the culmination of intensive training and the commencement of a promising journey in the realm of law enforcement. Proud family members and friends assembled to honor the achievements of the graduates and extend a warm welcome into the law enforcement fraternity.

The ceremony celebrated and showcased the dedication and commitment of the following candidates:

- La'Kadrian Griffin
- Ryan Krafthefer (Top Academic)
- Corby McIntire (Top Driver)
- Christopher Meyers
- Raneshia Price (Top Gun)
- Ta-haj Smith (Class Leader)
- Alexandr Wahman
- Trevez Walker
- Montell Walton

"I am proud to see these graduates take this important step to a long career in law enforcement. I know they will serve their communities with compassion, honor and respect," stated Eric Snowberger, Director of the Law Enforcement Academy under the School of Public and Professional Services.

Marshal Ramone Lamkin from the Richmond County Marshal's Office served as the guest speaker. Graduates will be employed at the Richmond County

Burke County Sheriff's Department and City of Thomson Police.
