Each Week fill in any requirements such as WORK, CLASSES, SPORT/MUSIC PRACTICE, COMMUNITY MEETINGS, FAMILY COMMITMENTS, CURRENT SCHEDULED APPOINTMENTS.

CLASS – When you are in the physical classroom. This is when you should be taking good notes, interacting with the classroom discussion and reviewing upcoming requirements for the class – tests, papers, projects, etc.

STUDY – During these times you should be pre-reading your textbook (read the chapter before the instructor reviews that chapter in class), study notes in preparation of future tests – more you look at the notes, the more you will retain on the day of the test. If it helps, rewrite your notes on the computer or create notecards for vocabulary and items that need to be memorized (helpful to see small amounts at one time). You will also complete class projects and do research during the study periods. (You need to be studying approximately 2 hours for every hour in class.)
