Student Handbooks

Revised:

Last Reviewed: July 02, 2026

Adopted: April 23, 2001

POLICY:

Each Technical College shall create and publish, electronically or otherwise, regularly a student handbook. The handbook shall incorporate, either directly or by reference, all appropriate information regarding student life at the Technical College. It shall also contain all information necessary to meet state and federal regulatory requirements for informing students of their rights on, among other things, the privacy of their student records, campus security and safety, freedom from illegal discrimination, and tuition refunds.

The Student Handbook may be contained in the College Catalog.
